

Get to Know Your Servicemembers' Group Life Insurance Benefit

Overview

Servicemembers' Group Life Insurance, or SGLI, is a low-cost, term life insurance policy designed to protect your loved ones from unexpected financial stress. Your military branch will automatically enroll you for the maximum coverage amount of $500,000, and the SGLI premium deductions are taken out of your monthly base pay. The beneficiary of your policy receives the tax-free benefit if your death occurs during the coverage period.

Key points

- Eligibility: Active-duty service members and eligible Reserve and National Guard members are automatically enrolled in SGLI. In addition, if you are covered under SGLI, your spouse and dependent children may be eligible for Family SGLI coverage. To learn more about eligibility and options for coverage, visit the Department of Veterans Affairs website at <https://www.va.gov/life-insurance/options-eligibility/sgli>.
- Changing or adding coverage: You can change the amount of coverage, decline coverage or change the beneficiary designation at any time. Changes can be made through the SGLI Online Enrollment System at <https://milconnect.dmdc.osd.mil/milconnect>. If you do elect to opt out, know it may be harder to change or obtain coverage in the future.
- Rates: SGLI costs depend on the amount of coverage you choose – and that depends on your specific financial situation.
